(a) The operation and conduct of the Progression and Award Board (and/or Module Board meeting you may also have attended).

Excellent with no problems

(b) The action, if any was required, taken in response to your report of last year. (This will not be relevant if you are examining for the first time.)

(c) The overall performance of the students, in relation to that of comparable levels of work in other institutions.

A remarkably high level of achievement for which staff and students are to be congratulated

(d) The strengths and weaknesses of the students in general with respect to knowledge, conceptual grasp or application of skills.

A remarkably high level of theoretical and substantive engagement with decolonial thought and its implications for education

(e) The standards of the structure, organisation, design and marking of all examination papers and/or other forms of assessment.

Excellent with creative and innovative topics and excellent administration and moderation

(f) The curriculum, teaching or resourcing of the programme of study as indicated by the performance of the students in the assessment

An exciting and challenging curriculum at the leading edge of debates with an excellent learning and teaching environment

(g) Comments on the use of My Beckett (Virtual Learning Environment) within the course (if applicable).

Excellent, easily accessible and useable.

(h) Module content, consistency of modules and module assessment across the course and the achievement of learning outcomes. (You may be asked by your School to provide detailed comments on the modules that you examine.)

Charting new territory in the range and depth of theory and evidence on race, education and decoloniality, with high levels of student engagement and outstanding results.

External Examiner's report summary

(i) Areas of student/staff engagement in teaching and learning, scholarship, research or professional practice.

Clear evidence across all modules of high quality engagement and in particular with issues of the reproduction of coloniality and issues of intersectionality in schools and HE, together with approaches to decolonising these environments

(j) The University welcomes external examiners' comments on its academic regulatory framework. Such comments may not have a direct bearing on standards set and achieved or the conduct of processes and so it may not be appropriate to include them elsewhere in this report or its summary. Please record any concerns or comments you may have here.

(k) Collaborative Provision: please include here any comments you wish to make on elements of collaborative provision for which you have responsibility (in addition to those you may have indicated previously in this report).
