If your answer is 'no', please provide a brief statement (bullet points) of the respect(s) in which they fall short.

(a) The operation and conduct of the Progression and Award Board (and/or Module Board meeting you may also have attended).

not able to attend

(b) The action, if any was required, taken in response to your report of last year. (This will not be relevant if you are examining for the first time.)

(c) The overall performance of the students, in relation to that of comparable levels of work in other institutions.

Evidence for Practice dissertation

A good range of marks and an appropriate number of firsts.

Medical Sciences sub-component of Foundations of SLT Module

Looking across the sample of scripts, they are fairly marked and good internal moderation. There is a wide range of scores with a high number in the 70+ range.

(d) The strengths and weaknesses of the students in general with respect to knowledge, conceptual grasp or application of skills.

MEDICAL SCIENCES 2

Students get the opportunities to tackle real challenging content.

(e) The standards of the structure, organisation, design and marking of all examination papers and/or other forms of assessment.

Evidence for Practice dissertation

I agreed with the marks allocated. I note that there is a high level of feedback for which will be very useful for students.

(f) The curriculum, teaching or resourcing of the programme of study as indicated by the performance of the students in the assessment

The modules are taught through flipped (recorded) lectures which students listen to at home and seminars in which students complete critical appraisal exercises. The assessment marks show that performance is being maintained.

(g) Comments on the use of My Beckett (Virtual Learning Environment) within the course (if applicable).

NA

(h) Module content, consistency of modules and module assessment across the course and the achievement of learning outcomes. (You may be asked by your School to provide detailed comments on the modules that you examine.)

Across the modules I looked at, there was consistency.

(i) Areas of student/staff engagement in teaching and learning, scholarship, research or professional practice.
