If your answer is 'no', please provide a brief statement (bullet points) of the respect(s) in which they fall short.

(a) The operation and conduct of the Progression and Award Board (and/or Module Board meeting you may also have attended).

The PAB was conducted in line with regulations. Staff team should be commended for the sensitive handling of student decisions within the context of COVID-19 and new university regulations around student decisions in relation to this.

(b) The action, if any was required, taken in response to your report of last year. (This will not be relevant if you are examining for the first time.)

(c) The overall performance of the students, in relation to that of comparable levels of work in other institutions.

Level of work is comparable to other institutions at this level.

(d) The strengths and weaknesses of the students in general with respect to knowledge, conceptual grasp or application of skills.

Students ranged in ability and understanding of the material. Assessments appropriately pitched and marked to identify high performing students, and those with low ability or understanding.

(e) The standards of the structure, organisation, design and marking of all examination papers and/or other forms of assessment.

Assessment structures are clear

(f) The curriculum, teaching or resourcing of the programme of study as indicated by the performance of the students in the assessment

Clear, and appropriate, with a student focus

(g) Comments on the use of My Beckett (Virtual Learning Environment) within the course (if applicable).

(h) Module content, consistency of modules and module assessment across the course and the achievement of learning outcomes. (You may be asked by your School to provide detailed comments on the modules that you examine.)

Module attainment is consistent for students, and assessments appropriate

(i) Areas of student/staff engagement in teaching and learning, scholarship, research or professional practice.

Students appear engaged with coursework, staff actively engaged in supporting students

(j) The University welcomes external examiners' comments on its academic regulatory framework. Such comments may not have a direct bearing on standards set and achieved or the conduct of processes and so it may not be appropriate to include them elsewhere in this report or its summary. Please record any concerns or comments you may have here.

(k) Collaborative Provision: please include here any comments you wish to make on elements of collaborative provision for which you have responsibility (in addition to those you may have indicated previously in this report).
