Storage and Packing Options – Summer 2020

To support you with getting your belongings, two suppliers are listed below as options to help with packing, storage, and shipping services. Please contact them directly to make a booking with them, and they will arrange all of the details with you and accommodation sites.

All costs associated with reuniting you with your belongings will need to be paid by yourself directly to the supplier. However, if you are a Leeds Beckett student and are struggling financially you may be able to apply for assistance from the University's Hardship Fund or, after 19th June, the Summer Assistance Fund. Awards are not guaranteed, and you can find more information at this link

By booking with one of the below suppliers you are giving permission for them to enter your room at your halls and are happy for our accommodation staff to facilitate this for them. If you would prefer to make alternative arrangements, please feel free to do so but please make sure you advise the accommodation office of your plans. We are unable to store your belongings for you, and therefore all of your belongings must be removed by the end of your tenancy.

The University cannot take responsibility for any lost or damaged items caused during collection/removal of your belongings.
