Group Work Assessment - Resources

- Getting the most from groupwork assessment This practical guide from Oxford Brookes sets out straightforwardly the complex factors tutors need to consider in designing effective group work assessment.
- 2. The assessment of group work: lessons from the literature. An overview by Prof Graham Gibbs of the evidence base for the guidelines at #1.
- 3. Skills for Learning (Leeds Beckett) The Group Skills section is intended to develop and support student understanding of the contexts and processes of group work.
- 4. Groupwork Assessment Concise summary of how contributions to group work can be assessed from Manchester Metropolitan University / Melbourne University.
- 5. Slides from CLT workshop on Group Work Assessment providing guidance, strategies and good practice in group work assessment.
- 6. Using cooperative learning groups effectively This resource by Cynthia Brame and Rachel Biel at Vanderbilt University introduce the concept of cooperative learning.