

LOOKING FOR FUNDING TO HELP YOU STUDY A COURSE IN FILM, GAMES OR TV?

“Having BAFTA behind me supported me during my studies and helped me create contacts in the industry”

Craig Dean Devine, BAFTA Scholar (2012)

Cinematographer on Pili,

BAFTA-nominated film in 2019

BRITISH ACADEMY
OF FILM AND TELEVISION ARTS

APPLY NOW FOR A BAFTA SCHOLARSHIP

The BAFTA Scholarship Programme offers talented individuals of any age a chance to help further their career by studying a course in film, games or television at a range of universities and institutions around the UK.

Successful British applicants for our scholarships in the UK will receive:

- Up to £12,000 towards annual tuition fees
- Mentoring by an industry professional
- Free access to BAFTA events

In addition, three successful applicants will be awarded a Prince William Scholarship in Film, Games and Television, supported by BAFTA and Warner Bros., including a short paid work placement within the Warner Bros. group of companies and other benefits.

The BAFTA Tinopolis Scholarship, supported by Tinopolis, will support a talented individual from Wales who wants to build a career in television.

Find out more and apply at www.bafta.org/supporting-talent/scholarships

Deadline for applications: Tuesday 28 May 2019

Know someone who might be interested in applying? Please pass this on!

Got a question about scholarships? Email us at scholarships@bafta.org

BRITISH ACADEMY
OF FILM AND TELEVISION ARTS

@BAFTA