Sandwich or Other 'In Year' Work Placement Information

Summary

Leeds Beckett is dedicated to improving the employability of our students and one of the ways in which we do this is to support our students to gain valuable work experience through work-based placements. Our placement teams have developed strong links with companies, many of whom repeatedly recruit our students into excellent placement roles and the teams are dedicated to supporting students through every stage of the placement process. More information about the many benefits of undertaking a work placement, along with details about how to contact our placement teams may be found here: <http://www.leedsbeckett.ac.uk/studenthub/placement-information/>

Course Overview

Aims

The aims of the programme are to:

- provide an academically and vocationally relevant education for a career in Physical Education teaching (via Postgraduate Teacher Education routes such as PGCE, GTP) with an outdoor specialism;
- provide an academically and vocationally relevant education for a career in Outdoor Education related areas of work with the option of a specialist area in PE Teaching, Health and Sport Science disciplines;

- provide a multi-disciplinary Award that integrates theory and practice in the broader contexts of Physical Education and Outdoor Education from natural science, social science and outdoor activity perspectives;
- provide students with knowledge and a critical understanding of the concepts, theories, principles and methodologies that are central to the study of Physical Education, Outdoor Education, Physical Activity and health or PE's relationship with Sport Science disciplines;
- enable students to develop qualities and transferable skills necessary for employment E.g. communication skills, team work skills and professional attributes such as highly motivated and competitive but also collaborative and inclusive.

Course Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate a critical understanding of the interdisciplinary nature of academic and vocational definitions of physical and outdoor education.
2. Work effectively and efficiently both independently and as part of a team in a range of professional contexts including, schools and community settings.
3. Demonstrate the ability to critically evaluate the complex interrelationships between theory and pedagogy in practice in physical and outdoor education.
4. Demonstrate a critical appreciation of creative inquiry, critical thinking and critical analysis, evaluation and interpretation of research and its application to physical and outdoor education.

Teaching and Learning Activities

Summary

Students will be engaged through a variety of teaching and learning activities whilst studying the BA (Hons) Physical Education with Outdoor Education degree. Challenging and authentic tasks will be used to stretch the student's capabilities in real world learning and assessment resulting in a deeper approach to learning. Engagement in these tasks will involve practical participation, observation and analysis, along with critical reflection. This will mean that students from a variety of backgrounds, with different (dis)abilities will be able to find their own Level of engagement. The majority of modules on the degree will consist of 20 credits which equates to 200 notational learning hours. The learning of each 20 credit module will consist of a minimum of 48 hours contact time.

The following learning and teaching strategies will be used across the modules on the BA (Hons) Physical Education with Outdoor Education degree:

- Students will participate in practical workshops to experience/develop the skills required in delivering programmes in a variety of physical and outdoor education contexts
- Students will lead practical sessions on physical and outdoor activity for a variety of target populations.
- Students will attend interactive lectures where they will be expected to contribute having done some preparatory reading in advance
- Students will participate in tutorials where they will work in small groups to engage with learning activities (e.g. small group discussions)
- Students will engage and contribute to laboratory/ practical sessions.
- Students will organise and conduct laboratory and field data collection, analysis and interpretation.
- Students will work independently to research the relevant literature predominantly using electronic databases and search engines.
- Students will complete weekly directed activities/ formative assessments which will inform the content of scheduled sessions, providing opportunities for feedback.

The blend of learning approaches will involve a combination of face-to-face facilitated learning, online learning and self-study which will differ by module and across Levels. The main emphasis is on face to face learning, a relatively high proportion of which is practical.

Assessment Balance and Scheduled Learning and Teaching Activities by Level

The assessment balance and overall workload associated with this course are calculated from core modules and typical option module choices undertaken by students on the course. They have been reviewed and confirmed as representative by the Course Director but applicants should note that the specific option choices students make may influence both assessment and workload balance.

A standard module equates to 200 notional learning hours, which may be comprised of teaching, learning and assessment, any embedded placement activities and independent study. Modules may have more than one component of assessment.

Assessment

Level 4 is assessed by coursework predominately, with some examinations and practical assessments.

Level 5 is assessed by coursework predominantly, with some examinations and practical assessments.

Level 6 is assessed by course work predominantly, with some examinations and practical assessments.

* Refer to Placement information above for further details.

Learning Support

If you have a question or a problem relating to your course, your Course Administrator is there to help you. Course Administrators work closely with academic staff and can make referrals to teaching staff or to specialist professional services as appropriate. They can give you a confirmation of attendance letter, and a transcript. You may also like to contact your Course Rep or the Students' Union Advice team for additional support with course-related questions.

If you have any questions about life at our University in general, call into or contact the Student Advice Hub on either campus. This team, consisting of recent graduates and permanent staff, are available to support you throughout your time here. They will make sure you have access to and are aware of the support, specialist services, and opportunities our University provides. There is a Student Advice Hub on the ground floor of the Rose Bowl at City Campus and one in Campus Central at Headingley. You can also find the team in the Gateway in the Leslie Silver Building at City Campus. Email enquiries may be directed to studentadvicehub@leedsbeckett.ac.uk.

Within MyBeckett you will see two tabs (Support and Opportunities) where you can find online information and resources for yourselves. The Support tab gives you access to details of services available to give you academic and personal support. These include Library Services, the Students' Union, Money advice, Disability advice and support, Wellbeing, International Student Services and Accommodation. There is also an A-Z of Support Services, and access to online appointments/registration.

The Opportunities tab is the place to explore the options you have for jobs, work placements, volunteering, and a wide range of other opportunities. For example, you can find out here how to get help with your CV, prepare for an interview, get a part-time job or voluntary role, take part in an international project, or join societies closer to home.
