Teaching and Learning Activities

Summary

The delivery of the course is based on a standard model of lecture (typically 2 hours) followed by seminar (typically 2 hours) (total = 4 hours). Lectures deliver key knowledge. Seminars facilitate enhancement and application of knowledge through use of case studies, simulations, projects, critical readings, and so on. Seminars also bridge the gap from module content to module assessment, helping students to prepare for and engage with summative assessment tasks. Finally seminars offer guidance on additional independent learning, for example by extension tasks, guide for further reading and additional resources.

Throughout the course students experience a range of learning and teaching activities e.g. lectures, seminars, supervised computer lab workshops, supported by on-line resources. Seminar preparation is also supported by the use of VLE tools e.g. document and web links will direct students to reading materials and additional activities in a range of modules such as Introduction to Accounting (H4), Applied Finance for Enterprise and Accounting Issues (H6). Students are able to self-check their understanding by completing online quizzes. Additional module support is provided by tutors in their weekly consultation drop in sessions.

Students are guided and encouraged to develop independent study skills. Students are encouraged to value the contributions of their peers, for example in the preparation of a group presentation in the Business Context module at level H4 and in Financial Management in H5. Strategic Planning and Control level H6 involves students working in groups to manage and carry out a business simulation project synthesizing, applying, and reflecting on the knowledge and skills developed throughout the award.
