Course Overview

The benefit of the award to business graduates will be that it will provide students with a programme of advanced and challenging study in management fields which allows them to build upon existing qualifications and experience. The MSc Management thus seeks to enhance student personal and interpersonal competencies, intellectual skills and self-motivation through a process involving problem solving, collaborative working, participative and reflective learning.

MSc Management will also aim to help students to make the transition to postgraduate study. This transition is about being a sophisticated, independent and critical thinker using knowledge in a professional and critical context. The programme will support students' development so that by the end of the programme they will be confident enough to apply their knowledge in a range of complex situations. The programme will prepare for students a range of further development opportunities whether this be further study, professional development or a future career.

Aims

The aims of the programme are to:

- 1) To equip graduates with management skills necessary to manage:
  - people and their performance
  - the business
  - crises and change
  - projects and the associated risksas well as develop strategies to deal with global challenges and the choices facing the business.
- 2) To meet the increasing demand of graduates who want to develop knowledge and skills in the broad areas of management and marketing and boost their marketability by acquiring a Master's qualification.

- 3) To provide students with a programme of advanced and challenging study in the field of management which allows them to build upon existing qualifications and experience in seeking continual professional development.

Course Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. Critically evaluate, synthesise and apply advanced and contemporary theories, debates and techniques to a range of complex and open-ended issues, problems and situations
2. Demonstrate a critical, ethical and reflective approach to their professional / subject / work domain
3. Learn interdependently and independently and accept responsibility for subsequent career and continuing professional development
4. Critically apply with a degree of creativity and sophistication, intellectual, transferable and subject / professional skills to a range of complex and open-ended business problems and situations.
5. Make informed judgements and decisions, in areas relating to business and management, in the absence of complete data
6. Effectively carry out a dissertation project, which will involve secondary and primary research with due regard to ethical considerations and research methodologies.

Teaching and Learning Activities

Summary

A mix of lectures, tutorials and online resources are designed to encourage a community of learning which invites and enables all participants to engage in discussions, to be visible, valued and respected for their individual contribution.

Modules at this level will be characterised not only by the inclusion of more advanced knowledge, but also by being more open-ended in the realistic situations in which students are required to identify and tackle problems. The progressive problem-solving philosophy, together with the complementary encouragement of independent learning, will shift the mix of work away from that done in class and towards that done outside.

Your Modules

This information is correct for students progressing through the programme within standard timescales. Option modules listed are indicative of a typical year. There may be some variance in the availability of option modules. Students who are required to undertake repeat study may be taught alternate modules which meet the overall course learning outcomes. Details of module delivery will be provided in your timetable.

Assessment Balance and Scheduled Learning and Teaching Activities

The assessment balance and overall workload associated with this course are calculated from core modules and typical option module choices undertaken by students on the course. They have been reviewed and confirmed as representative by the Course Director, but applicants should note that the specific option choices students make may influence both assessment and workload balance.

A standard module equates to 200 notional learning hours, which may be comprised of teaching, learning and assessment, any embedded placement activities and independent study. Modules may have more than one component of assessment.

Assessment

On this course students will be assessed predominantly by coursework with some examinations and practical activities. At the end of the course, students may choose between producing a dissertation or a consultancy project.

Workload

Overall Workload
Teaching, Learning and Assessment	264 hours
Independent Study	1536 hours
Placement	N/A

Learning Support

If you have a question or a problem relating to your course, your Course Administrator is there to help you. Course Administrators work closely with academic staff and can make referrals to teaching staff or to specialist professional services as appropriate. They can give you a confirmation of attendance letter, and a transcript. You may also like to contact your Course Rep or the Students' Union Advice team for additional support with course-related questions.

Student Services

If you have any questions about life at University, call into our Student Services Centre at either campus or contact Student Advice directly. This team, consisting of trained officers and advisers are available to support you throughout your time here. They will make sure you have access to and are aware of the support, specialist services, and opportunities our University provides. They also work on a wide range of projects throughout the year all designed to enhance your student experience and ensure you make the most of your time with us. Student Advice are located in the Student Services Centre in the Leslie Silver Building at City Campus and on the ground floor of the Priestley Building at Headingley Campus. The team can also be contacted via email at studentadvice@leedsbeckett.ac.uk, telephone on 0113 812 3000, or by accessing our online chat link, available on the student homepage.

Support and opportunities

Within MyBeckett you will see two tabs (Support and Opportunities) where you can find online information and resources for yourselves. The Support tab gives you access to details of services available to give you academic and personal support. These include Library Services, the Students' Union, Money advice, Disability advice and support, Wellbeing, International Student Services and Accommodation. There is also an A-Z of Support Services, and access to online appointments/registration.

The Opportunities tab is the place to explore the options you have for jobs, work placements, volunteering, and a wide range of other opportunities. For example, you can find out here how to get help with your CV, prepare for an interview, get a part-time job or voluntary role, take part in an international project, or join societies closer to home.
