Course Overview

Aims

The aims of the programme are to:

Engage students in pursuing and acquiring a comprehensive knowledge and dynamic understanding of the law. The curriculum and structure of the course has been designed to develop, academic, practical, digital and employability skills. Students will participate in a range of learning activities and authentic assessment tasks over the course of their studies and at each stage they will be supported to become independent learners in the discipline of law. As a result, students who successfully complete the LLB (Hons) have a range of skills and attributes on graduation that are attractive to both legal and non-legal employers.

The LLB (Hons) provides students with the opportunity to select a portfolio of modules that aligns with their career aspirations and interests as they grow and take shape.

During the first year of the Course students study the compulsory modules of Public Law, Contract Law, and Criminal Law, as well as English Legal System, and Legal and Employability Skills. Building on the core knowledge studied in the first year, during the second and third years of the Course students can choose their modules of study. For example, those students who wish to enter the legal profession would be advised to study Property Law and Tort Law in the second year, and Equity and Trusts, and European Law in Context in the third year, as well as other modules of interest. Students would then be in a position to move to the next stage of the qualification process for solicitors (the Solicitors Qualifying Examination www.sra.org.uk/become-solicitor/sqe), for barristers (the vocational component of Bar training www.barstandardsboard.org.uk/training-qualification/becoming-a-barrister/vocational-component.html) and the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives (CILEx) (www.cilex.org.uk/cilex_lawyer/about_cpq/cpq_advanced).

It is recognised that not all students wish to progress to a professional legal qualification and the LLB (Hons) gives those students the flexibility to study the blend of modules that interests them and/or is more relevant for their graduate future. For instance, a student who is not interested in qualifying as a solicitor or barrister can choose not to study Property Law in the second year and study Legal Tech or Commercial Law instead, they could choose not to study Equity and Trusts in the third year and study Animal Law and Media and Entertainment Law instead.

The LLB (Hons) offers a range of practical, vocational electives, such as Client Care Skills in the second year, and the Law Clinic in the third year. Students can also undertake placement/work-based learning modules (over a year, a semester, or over the summer vacation), thus broadening their CVs and enhancing their prospects of securing graduate positions in the industry of their choice. The skills and experience learnt in these modules will support graduate careers in legal, and also non legal, environments.

Course Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

No.	Learning Outcome
1	Demonstrate comprehensive and coherent knowledge, understanding and application of fundamental legal concepts and principles
2	Autonomously analyse, critique and challenge contemporary issues in law
3	Provide realistic and coherent strategic solutions to legal problems and recognise conflicts and tensions in law
4	Demonstrate a critical awareness and understanding of the position and rule of law, both in relation to specific subjects and generally within its social, economic, commercial, political, historical, ethical and/or cultural contexts
5	Communicate fluently and coherently using legal terminology effectively and in a manner appropriate to the audience
6	Act independently in planning and managing study tasks with limited guidance and with an ability to identify and utilise relevant resources effectively

Teaching and Learning Activities

Summary

The LLB (Hons) aims to create a flexible and stimulating learning environment. By being able to choose their palette of modules, students are able to tailor their degree to their career aspirations. This, with the culture of high expectation and confidence in our student cohorts, and the Law School's enrichment programme, gives students the opportunity to develop and work towards their academic and career goals.

At Level 4, the emphasis is upon transition and engagement, enabling all students to understand, and meet the challenges of learning within a University as self-directed learners and supporting their success at the next levels of their course.

At Level 5, the focus is upon consolidation and deeper contextualisation. At this intermediate stage, students will become more immersed in their legal studies, and able to reflect critically both upon its nature and place within their future professional and/or academic lives.

The emphasis at Level 6 is upon strengthening and developing independence and the further growth of students as critical thinkers, increasingly knowledgeable and reflective, both about their own academic development and about the research environment of their subject.

Learning and teaching activities include recorded lectures, large group sessions, and seminars. Learning tasks and assessments are authentic as they are heavily based around real life problem situations and require students to give legal advice. Many activities are designed to challenge students, requiring them to adapt to different situations, employ different skills and perform similar tasks to those they might be required to do in the workplace. Students are encouraged to reflect on tasks and be more mindful of what they are doing and why, and of how the skills they are learning might be used differently in different situations.

Assessment Balance and Scheduled Learning and Teaching Activities by Level

The assessment balance and overall workload associated with this course are calculated from core modules and typical option module choices undertaken by students on the course. They have been reviewed and confirmed as representative by the Course Director but applicants should note that the specific option choices students make may influence both assessment and workload balance.

A standard module equates to 200 notional learning hours, which may be comprised of teaching, learning and assessment, any embedded placement activities and independent study. Modules may have more than one component of assessment.

Assessment

Level 4 is assessed by a broadly even mix of written assignments (coursework) and MCQ (Multiple Choice Question) assessments. There are also elements of oral assessment.

Level 5 is assessed predominately by written assignments (coursework) and MCQ assessments. There are also elements of oral assessment and timed assessments. As all modules at Level 5 are elective modules, the specific mix will depend on the modules selected by a student.

Level 6 is assessed predominately by written assignments (coursework). There are also elements of oral assessment, MCQ assessments and timed assessments. As all modules at Level 6 are elective modules, the specific mix will depend on the module selected by a student.

Workload

The number of hours of workload generally equates to 1200 per level for an honours degree, corresponding to the national standard of 10 notional hours of learning for each UK HE credit point.

There will be some variance at level 6 dependent on the modules selected by a student.

Overall Workload	Level 4	Level 5	Level 6
Teaching, Learning and Assessment	288 hours	288 hours	216 hours
Independent Study	912 hours	912 hours	984 hours (without placement option) 904 hours (with placement option)
Placement	-	-	Optional – minimum of 80 hours
