

Tuesday, 15th July 2025

Check in at the hotel opens from 3pm (bag check available). Andrew will be around from about 3pm as well.

Welcome Reception

7pm – 11pm in the Bute & Arran section of the Sky Lounge

Drinks and food available throughout

- Tempura Prawn, Sweet Chilli
- Avocado, Sundried Tomato Bruschetta (Gluten Free)
- Maple & Grain Mustard Glazed Pigs In Blankets
- Chorizo Arancini, Spiced Mayonnaise
- Salt & Pepper Chicken Bites
- Deli Meat Brioche Club Sandwich
- Deli Cheese & Pickle Brioche Club Sandwich
- Roast Vegetable & Hummus Flat Bread (Vegan)

Wednesday-Friday

Tea, coffee snacks: 8.30am, 10.30am, 3pm each day

Wednesday 16th July, 2025

Time: 9am-10.30pm	Symposium 1: Grant Opportunities
9am – 9.45am	Nicoletta Mirachi, Leeds Beckett University Research and Enterprise Services	Funding opportunities
10am – 10.30am	Raoul Bongers, University Medical Center Groningen	Lessons Learned from REPAIRS
	Session Discussion Throughout
10.30 – 11am BREAK
11am-12noon	Poster Session
	Harjo J de Poel, University Medical Center Groningen	Moving Larger to (Re)stabilize Coordination
	Harjo J de Poel, University Medical Center Groningen	Rocking Against Each Other: Dynamics of Between-Agent Interactional Opposition
	Jessica Dukes, University of Southern Mississippi	Are Object-Affordance Pairs Bidirectional?
	Dees Postma, University of Twente	Not All Solutions are Created Equally: From Possibility to Actuality in Affordance-Based Control
12pm-1.30pm: Lunch (food from 12.30 in the Lock Kitchen & Bar)
1.30pm-3pm	Symposium 2: Plurality in Empirical Analyses of Affordances and Effectivities (Anadi Mehta, Convener)
1.30pm	Giulia Di Renzo, University of Antwerp	Affordances in Context: Behaviour Settings and the Social and Material Organisation of Possibilities for Action
1.50pm	Samruddhi Damle, University Medical Center Groningen	Affordance Perception for Others
2.10pm	Marijn Hafkamp, Aix-Marseille University	Interpersonal Coordination to Actualise Social Affordances: Lessons from a Ball & Beam Paradigm
2.30	Anadi Mehta, University Medical Center Groningen	Influence of Practice Variability on Search for New Effectivities
2.50pm	Symposium Discussion
3pm-3.30pm BREAK
3.30pm-4.30pm	Talks: Philosophy & Theory
3.30pm	David Sánchez González, Joan Camarena, Universidad de Granada/University of Granada	Reclaiming Meaning in Perception: A Biosemantic Account of Ecological Information
3.50pm	Edward Baggs, University of Southern Denmark	James J Gibson’s Affordance Examples
4.10pm	Anna Finke, University of Murcia	Beyond the Extended Mind: Memory as a Continuum in the Organism-Environment System
4.30pm	Miguel Gramage, University of Valencia	Prioritising Relevance: Two Views on Agency and Direct Perception
4.50pm	Aditya Pongshe, University of Murcia	Learning Beyond Brains: An Ecological-Behaviourist Framework for Plant Learning
5.10pm	Session Discussion
End of Day
Reception (from 7pm) and BBQ Dinner (from 7.30pm) on the terrace of the Lock Kitchen and Bar

Thursday 17th July, 2025

Time: 9am-10.30pm	Symposium 3: Ecological Psychology and the Bliss of Motor Abundance (Dees Postma, Convener)
9am	Dees Postma, University of Twente	Modelling Motor Equivalence in Sport to Inform the Constraints-Led Approach
9.20am	Matthew Rodger, Queen's University Belfast	Motor Abundance Concepts for Skill Acquisition: Research and Applications
9.40am	Raoul Bongers, University Medical Center Groningen	Action and perception co-evolve when learning a novel coordinative structure
10am	Andrew D Wilson, Leeds Beckett University	How Task Dynamical Affordances Constrain Motor Abundance
10.30 – 11am BREAK
11am-12pm	Talks 2: Social Coordination
11am	Catherine Read, Rutgers University	The Ecological Self and Its Development
11.20am	Sarka Kadava, Leibniz Centre General Linguistics	Modulation of Multimodal Effort in Communicative Breakdowns during a Gestural-Vocal Game
11.40am	Lisette De Jonge-Hoekstra, University of Groningen	Move and Play Like You Never Did Before: Social Coordination and Creativity During Musical Improvisation
11.50pm	Session Discussion
12pm-1.30pm: Lunch (food from 12.30 in the Lock Kitchen & Bar)
1.30pm-2.30pm	Talks 3: Coordination
1.30pm	Harjo J de Poel, University Medical Center Groningen	Perception of Coordination
1.50pm	James Trujillo, University of Amsterdam	Multimodal Characteristics of Phase Transitions in Collaborative Conversation
2.10pm	Marije ten Den, University of Groningen	Patterns of Variability in Young Children's Coordinative Processes Across Different Tasks
2.30pm	Session Discussion
2.30pm-3pm BREAK
2.30pm-5pm	Visit to Royal Armouries
	We will walk along the canal (approximately 20mins) to visit the Royal Armouries, one of Leeds' major attractions (https://royalarmouries.org/leeds). This museum is free and open to the public, and sits in a square with coffee shops and bars.
End of Day
Reception (from 6.30pm in the Lock) and Dinner (from 8pm in the Rum & Eigg)

Friday 18th July 2025

9am-10am	Talks 4: Neuroscience & Robotics
9am	Vicente Raja, University of Murcia	A Brain for the Ecological Mind
9.20am	Ruud Van der Weel, Norwegian University of Science and Technology	Neural Aspects of Prospective Control through Resonating Taus
9.40am	Matteo Antonelli, University of Urbino	Beyond Morphological Computation: An Ecological Approach to Control in Soft Robotics
10am-10.30am BREAK
10.30am-12noon	Discussion: Future Directions for EWEP (Led by Andrew Wilson)
	Open discussion about what we want next for the group; next meeting, research collaborations, etc. Part of this can be reflections from the grant session, ideas that have come up over the course of the conference
12pm-1.30pm: Lunch (food from 12.30 in the Lock Kitchen & Bar)
End of Conference		