

PROMS UK Research Conference

Programme Overview

Advances in Patient Reported Outcomes: Integration and Innovation #PROMSLBU2019

Thursday 13th June 2019 Leeds Beckett University

09.15-09.55 Registration and refreshments in the Rose Bowl Atrium
 10.00 Welcome Dr Trish Holch -& Professor Peter Slee; Vice Chancellor Leeds Beckett University

Plenary session 1

10.10 10.40 Roger Wilson CBE HonMD HonLLD
'Understanding Value'
 Professor Stephen Radley MD FRCS FRCOG, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust, University of Sheffield
'Web-based PROMs in practice; from Women's Health to Pre-Operative Assessment'

Parallel session 1

10.45	Session 1 PROMS in clinical practice	Session 2 National and International PROM collaboration	Session 3 Health economics and Rapid reports
11.45	Poster viewing and refreshments in Rose Bowl Atrium

Plenary session 2

12.05-12.30 Mrs. Nanna Skovgaard
 Head of division in the Danish Ministry of Health, Department of health economics, division of data, infrastructure and cyber security.

Parallel session 2

12.35	Session 1 Diversity, drivers & pilot studies	Session 2 Proms in clinical practice & reporting standards	Session 3 Prom development & temporal factors
13.35	Lunch and poster viewing

Parallel session 3

14.35.	Session 1 Innovative Patient and Public involvement	Session 2 Workshop 'Improving care with electronic PRO feedback to clinicians: approaches, challenges & solutions' Chaired by Professor Galina Velikova, Patient Centered Outcomes Research Group; University of Leeds; LTHT	Session 3 ePROMS & cutting-edge methods
--------	--	--	--

15.35 Coffee served Grab a coffee – bring drinks back for panel discussion

Panel discussion

15.45 With plenary and workshop leads discussing PROM 'hot topics'
 Chair: Mrs Jennifer Bostock (Patient Representative)
 16.20 Prizes: Best Oral Early Career Researcher (ECR), Best Rapid report ECR; Best PhD Poster; Best PPI (team or individual award); Best tweet
 16.30 WINE Reception and poster viewing in the Rose Bowl Atrium

