(a) The operation and conduct of the Progression and Award Board (and/or Module Board meeting you may also have attended).
As usual, this was very professional and well chaired, with use of technology such as I pads being a huge success.

(b) The action, if any was required, taken in response to your report of last year. (This will not be relevant if you are examining for the first time.)
I believe that responses from last year were taken into account with both the use of CAD and the use of 'real life' buildings for projects, as opposed to theoretical sites.

(c) The overall performance of the students, in relation to that of comparable levels of work in other institutions.
N/A

(d) The strengths and weaknesses of the students in general with respect to knowledge, conceptual grasp or application of skills.
There was generally a large range of marking within each of the subjects moderated. This reflects the varied strengths and weaknesses of the students and in my opinion suggests that each assignment/exam paper has been marked fairly in each case.

(e) The standards of the structure, organisation, design and marking of all examination papers and/or other forms of assessment.

The assignment and examination briefs were well structured and provide the student with a clear indication of requirements and marking criteria.

(f) The curriculum, teaching or resourcing of the programme of study as indicated by the performance of the students in the assessment.

Assignments were well structured and good feedback was presented to the students overall.

(g) Comments on the use of My Beckett (Virtual Learning Environment) within the course (if applicable).

Good use of MyBeckett, although some items were missing.

(h) Module content, consistency of modules and module assessment across the course and the achievement of learning outcomes. (You may be asked by your School to provide detailed comments on the modules that you examine.)

Generally good module content in-keeping with current trends, legislation and Regulations.

(i) Areas of student/staff engagement in teaching and learning, scholarship, research or professional practice.

It is clear from the Awards Board that each staff member is passionate about their respective subjects and know each individual student and their capabilities. This should be commended.

(j) The University welcomes external examiners' comments on its academic regulatory framework. Such comments may not have a direct bearing on standards set and achieved or the conduct of processes and so it may not be appropriate to include them elsewhere in this report or its summary. Please record any concerns or comments you may have here.

Recommended sample sizes at Leeds Beckett University are as follows: a) Samples should be determined by a square root of cohort size, no smaller than 6, no larger than 15. However it should be borne in mind that not all work is assessed in a way that makes a square root sample possible and allowance should be made. For example in subjects such as the performing arts where there may be a requirement for an external to come and view a performance instead, or to visit the exhibition of art work. b) Samples to include all classification categories, and it is helpful to concentrate around the boundaries to include some fails. c) Samples to consist of internally moderated work, clearly evidencing the moderation process.
