(a) The operation and conduct of the Progression and Award Board (and/or Module Board meeting you may also have attended).
Well conducted

(b) The action, if any was required, taken in response to your report of last year. (This will not be relevant if you are examining for the first time.)
N/A

(c) The overall performance of the students, in relation to that of comparable levels of work in other institutions.
Similar to the other primarily relevant institutions – RICS and Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb)

(d) The strengths and weaknesses of the students in general with respect to knowledge, conceptual grasp or application of skills.
Students generally have a good grasp of the subjects, although obviously some students exhibit weaker skills than others and some do not communicate on paper as well as others. Standards are, however, pretty similar to those I see at RICS and CI Arb.

(e) The standards of the structure, organisation, design and marking of all examination papers and/or other forms of assessment.

Examination papers test to appropriate standard. Marking fair and feedback generally extensive

(f) The curriculum, teaching or resourcing of the programme of study as indicated by the performance of the students in the assessment.

No comment

(g) Comments on the use of My Beckett (Virtual Learning Environment) within the course (if applicable).

Not able to comment on use of it by students but content extensive

(h) Module content, consistency of modules and module assessment across the course and the achievement of learning outcomes. (You may be asked by your School to provide detailed comments on the modules that you examine.)

Module content is substantial and as needed to satisfy professional and practical requirements beyond university

(i) Areas of student/staff engagement in teaching and learning, scholarship, research or professional practice.

Within the constraints of a distance learning course, course appears to engage students by quality and variety and offers strong feedback and general support

(j) The University welcomes external examiners' comments on its academic regulatory framework. Such comments may not have a direct bearing on standards set and achieved or the conduct of processes and so it may not be appropriate to include them elsewhere in this report or its summary. Please record any concerns or comments you may have here.

No comment

(k) Collaborative Provision: please include here any comments you wish to make on elements of collaborative provision for which you have responsibility (in addition to those you may have indicated previously in this report).

Recommended sample sizes at Leeds Beckett University are as follows: a) Samples should be determined by a square root of cohort size, no smaller than 6, no larger than 15. However it should be borne in mind that not all work is assessed in a way that makes a square root sample possible and allowance should be made.
