Introduction

External Examiners are required by the terms of their appointment to submit an annual report. The report will be considered in depth during course annual monitoring activity. A record of the University's responses to examiners' reports also forms part of the documentation for this activity. It is also used in compiling our annual report on external examining.

Your report will be widely circulated and shared with Students and therefore we ask you not to refer to anyone by name or in a way that allows identification of an individual.

Please complete all sections of the report unless they are not relevant (such as you do not examine Collaborative or Degree Apprenticeship Provision). This report must be submitted within 28 days of the main Progression and Award Board and failure to submit within the required timescale may result in termination of your tenure as an external examiner without good reason.

NO EXAMINING FEES WILL BE PAID IF YOU FAIL TO SUBMIT YOUR ANNUAL REPORT.

Areas of good practice/commendation

A7) Please outline any particular strengths or distinctive or innovative features you have observed in relation to learning, teaching and assessment:

There are three areas of good practice to note this year: 1/ breadth of course content evident in the Part Time 3 timetable was impressive. Students were introduced to a wide range of contemporary influences on art psychotherapy practice, for instance socio-economic factors; intersectionality; psychological formulation; trauma; research. The written work reflected the application of these ideas in students researching their own curiosities. Students' written work also demonstrated reflexivity and confidence to use response art to deepen their therapeutic insights. 2/The range of teaching methods (lectures, film, workshops inside and outdoors, discussion and supervision groups) is to be commended. 3/The timetable is very well structured demonstrating regular time for staff meetings, clear signposting for student support, and opportunities to process the course material in a modality specific manner. Altogether this provides students with a containing, enriching environment to support their learning.

Final Comments

Are there any other final comments you would like to make in relation to your role as External Examiner?

Thank you to Sue Turton and Elaine Sadd for making the administrative aspects of being an External Examiner easy for me.

End of Tenure Report

If you are at the end of your tenure as External Examiner, please provide an overview of the development of the programme during your term of office. This overview will be of value to the University, the programme team and to the incoming External Examiner.

Please include commentary regarding academic standards and student achievement across cohorts during the examiner's period of appointment:

This Section is only to be completed by external examiners at the end of their tenure.

During my tenure as External Examiner this programme has undergone significant changes: transition of leadership from Dr Wood to Ms McKoy-Lewens; rapid adjustments to teaching methods and clinical placements for students due to the Covid-19 lockdowns and social restriction; and the eventual closure of the programme at Leeds Beckett. Despite these changes students have continued to receive a rich and engaging art psychotherapy training. The supportive staff team have provided encouraging and thoughtful feedback, and developed course material that tackles contemporary ideas relevant to entering the art therapy profession. They used the challenges of CV-19 to engage more with ICT and took creative approaches to teaching and learning (I am thinking of Padlets and whiteboards for the sharing of imagery). My comments have been reflected on by over the years the course leader and adjustments to qualitative feedback more clearly aligned with the University marking schedule. It has been a pleasure to contribute my perspective as External Examiner, and I wish the staff and students well as they move on to Sheffield Hallam.
