(d) The strengths and weaknesses of the students in general with respect to knowledge, conceptual grasp or application of skills.

Students demonstrate an excellent range of knowledge of language and culture.

(e) The standards of the structure, organisation, design and marking of all examination papers and/or other forms of assessment.

Excellent

(f) The curriculum, teaching or resourcing of the programme of study as indicated by the performance of the students in the assessment

Excellent

(g) Comments on the use of My Beckett (Virtual Learning Environment) within the course (if applicable).

Well organised and easy to use.

(h) Module content, consistency of modules and module assessment across the course and the achievement of learning outcomes. (You may be asked by your School to provide detailed comments on the modules that you examine.)

Excellent

(i) Areas of student/staff engagement in teaching and learning, scholarship, research or professional practice.

Excellent

(j) The University welcomes external examiners' comments on its academic regulatory framework. Such comments may not have a direct bearing on standards set and achieved or the conduct of processes and so it may not be appropriate to include them elsewhere in this report or its summary. Please record any concerns or comments you may have here.

The framework is clear and appropriate. It is an excellent example of good practice.

(k) Collaborative Provision: please include here any comments you wish to make on elements of collaborative provision for which you have responsibility (in addition to those you may have indicated previously in this report).
