What to Expect This is a great opportunity to hear from members of the course team. The session will provide an overview of your chosen course, outlining the course structure and the modules you will be studying. The session will lead into an interactive workshop.	12:00	12:30
Broadcast Media Workshop Applicants will have the opportunity to engage with two media production activities, first in our studio and then a post-production session in one of our Mac labs. You will be completing slimmed down versions of real student activities that will give a flavour of the types of activities that you will encounter during your study with us. No previous experience is necessary, just your enthusiasm.	12:30	14:00

If you would like to take up this opportunity, please bring along a sample, such as a short video reel, that you think best showcases your work.
