

YOUR APPLICANT DAY SCHEDULE

SATURDAY 9 MARCH 2019

Check In

Thank you for booking onto an Applicant Day. This is a fantastic opportunity to explore your course in more detail and meet your future course-mates. When you arrive on the day, please remember to check in on Level 1 in the Rose Bowl at City Campus where we will give you details about your course sessions and will answer any questions you might have. Our check-in desk is open from 09:30 - please try to arrive around 30 minutes before your first activity.

Psychology

Session	Start	Finish
What to Expect (Woodhouse Building – Lecture Theatre 3) Meet and hear from members of the course team. This session includes an overview of your chosen course, details of the course structure, the modules you will be studying, assessment methods and career prospects. Please note: due to limited capacity, this session will be limited to applicants and one guest only.	11:00	11:50
Social Psychology in the Real World (Calverley Building – Room 706) This interactive session will explore aspects of social psychology and how they are played out in the real world. It will give you some exposure to both mainstream and critical perspectives, which are a feature of our programme. Please note: due to limited room capacity this session will be open to applicants only.	12:00	12:25
Biopsychology Demonstration (Calverley Building – Room 706) This fun and engaging session will showcase some of our biopsychology equipment. We will demonstrate a Biopac which allows us to take a range of physiological measurements such as heart rate and galvanic skin response. This allows us to assess how people respond to different stimuli. Please note: due to limited room capacity this session will be open to applicants only.	12:25	12:50
