Equal Opportunities Policy

1.1 Leeds Beckett University aims to foster an environment where individuals and groups treat one another with dignity and respect.

1.2 The University recognises the centrality of equal opportunity to organisational effectiveness and is committed to promoting diversity and equality of opportunity. This commitment is affirmed in the University's mission:

“To engage in teaching and research of high quality and of value to society, which will enable the greatest number and widest variety of people to develop the capability to shape their future and to contribute to the development of their organisations and communities.”

1.3 The University is committed to eliminating both direct and indirect discrimination, so that no one is disadvantaged either through individual action or through University policies or procedures on the basis of race, gender, sexual orientation, ethnic or national origin, colour, age, marital status, disability, social class, political or religious belief and activities, unless those activities are contrary to the policies of the University. In respect of race, there is a Race Equality Policy, which sets out the University's position in response to the Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000.

1.4 The University will develop and endeavour to maintain structures, practices and procedures that have the effect of treating people on the basis of their ability and potential in an environment free from prejudice.

1.5 The University is committed to promoting a healthy working and studying environment to enable staff and students to utilise their talents and realise their potential.

Health & Safety

You have been made aware of general housekeeping rules, evacuation procedures, appropriate clothing and footwear etc relating to the area and activities to be carried out whilst on the course. Complaints Procedure

Carnegie Coach Education endeavours to provide all learners with a high quality of teaching and course delivery in a safe and comfortable environment. We constantly evaluate all aspects of our operation and are always looking to improve the services we provide. We actively seek and encourage feedback both verbally and written.

In the event that a learner is unhappy with any aspect of our service then the process to raise issues is outlined below:-

Step 1	Speak to the Course Tutor	Explain your concerns and try to resolve the issue
---------------	---------------------------	--

If your issue concerns the course Tutor or if the outcome from Step 1 is unacceptable you can move to Step 2

Step 2	Contact the Coach Education Officer: Adrienne Stockdale 0113 812 1797	Independent of actual course delivery the Carnegie Coach Education Officer will try to resolve the issue and reach an agreeable outcome
---------------	--	---

If you have exhausted all attempts to resolve your issues with Carnegie Coach Education and find that the outcome is still not acceptable you may choose to move to Step 3

Step 3	Contact: 1st4Sport Qualifications 0113 201 5555	Independent of Carnegie Coach Education – they will hear your concerns and may appoint an External Verifier to investigate further.
